

CAT English ตอนที่ 3 : ขึ้นเงินเดือน เลื่อนตำแหน่ง

Chris            Good morning boss?

Adam            Close that door.
                      Knock before you come in.

Chris            You called us.

Adam            Congratulations.
                      I have been very impressed with your work.
                      I am going to give you both a raise.

Chris            Car race?

Adam            You misunderstand.
                      I am going to give you both a raise.

Chris            Car race? Running race?
                      Raise your hand.

Adam            I am going to raise your pay.
                      Your income, your salary.
                      There is still more.
                      I am going to give you a promotion also.

Chris            Which product do you want us to promote?

Adam            I am going to promote both of you.

Chris            We are people, not products.

Adam            You misunderstand.
                      I will give you a higher position in the company.

Adam            I have changed my mind.
                      You don't get your promotion and pay raise.
